

3AM Technologies Expands Access to SimServeRx® with Anchor Simulation Partnership

JOELTON, TN, UNITED STATES, April 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 3AM Technologies is pleased to announce a new partnership with Anchor Simulation, who will now offer SimServeRx® as part of their simulation and education solutions portfolio.

3AM Technologies

This partnership reflects 3AM Technologies' continued commitment to expanding access to cutting-edge simulation tools that help educators teach safe medication administration in realistic environments.

"We're excited to partner with Anchor Simulation because of the longevity and trust their team has built in the simulation space. Their commitment to integrity, customer relationships, and innovation aligns perfectly with our core values and mission at 3AM Technologies," said Kevin Bracey, CEO of 3AM Technologies. "Together, we are confident we can deliver even more value to the simulation community."

Through Anchor Simulation, customers will gain another trusted resource for SimServeRx consultations, purchases, and implementation planning.

SimServeRx® customers will continue to receive direct support from 3AM Technologies for implementation, training, maintenance and support.
