

New Thriller 'The Coming' Unleashes Supernatural Terror — Watch the Gripping Trailer Now

A. Ben Bacon's chilling new novel 'The Coming' launches with a jaw-dropping trailer—where faith collides with fear.

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA, April 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a stunning new release, 'The Coming' by A. Ben Bacon catapults readers into a suspenseful world where good and evil collide in the most unexpected places. The novel, now available globally through Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and other major digital bookstores, marks a powerful entry into the supernatural thriller genre—and its newly released official trailer promises an unforgettable ride.

Set against the stark backdrop of a treacherous winter night, 'The Coming' begins with a car crash that ignites more than just flames. Joe, the protagonist, stumbles upon a scene of chaos—a car teetering on the edge of a cliff, two pregnant women, and a terrifying decision that could mean the difference between life and death.

What appears at first to be a tragic accident rapidly morphs into a supernatural conspiracy. Joe recognizes the women as Mareilene and Dareilene, twins from his past. But what follows is a desperate plea from Mareilene that reveals a sinister force is pursuing them—one that must be deceived at all costs. The result is a shocking moment that sets the tone for the rest of the novel: raw, riveting, and infused with the eternal battle between heaven and hell.

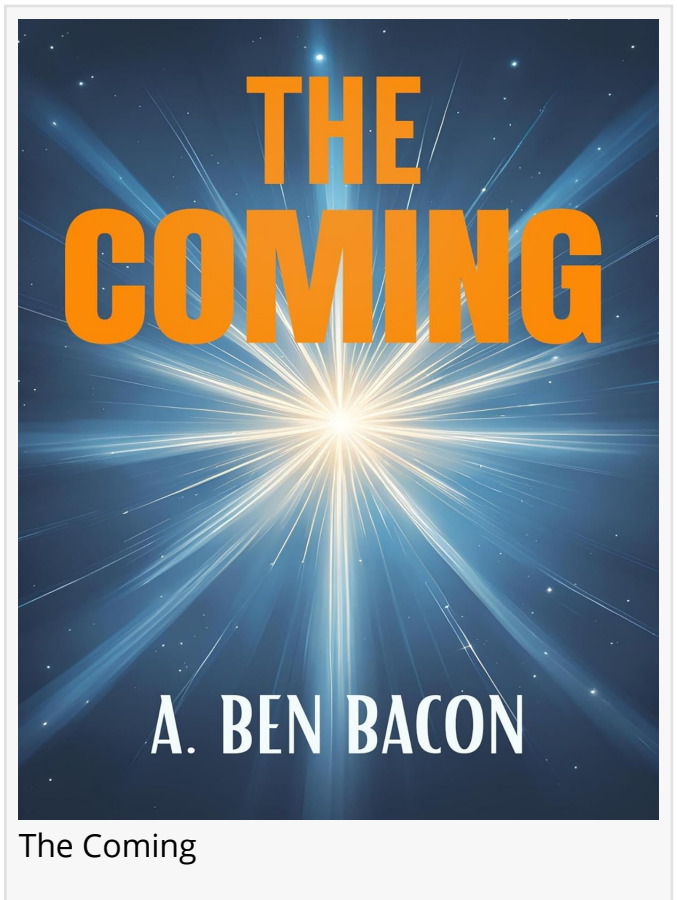

With razor-sharp pacing and atmospheric tension, A. Ben Bacon explores the thin veil between faith and survival, between God and the Devil. 'The Coming' dares readers to confront questions of morality, belief, and the lengths to which we'll go to protect what's sacred.
