

Apex Group continues growth across Africa with new office opening in Tshwane

SOUTH AFRICA, April 24, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Apex Group, the leading global financial services provider, has unveiled its fifth South African office in Tshwane. This strategic move further underscores Apex Group's commitment to the region and follows shortly after the launch of the Rwanda office, bringing the total to eight offices across Africa.

By opening an office in Tshwane, the nation's capital, and home to local universities, Apex Group not only can leverage top local talent, and provide an enhanced employee value proposition, but also service clients who are based in close proximity to the new office. Apex Group has established offices in five new jurisdictions in 2025 thus far, bringing the total footprint to 110+ offices, servicing US$3.4tn in assets under administration.

Alan Keet, Regional Head of Africa at Apex Group, said:

"I'm thrilled to launch a new office in South Africa. The new location is based in a high-profile commercial hub and strengthens our presence in the nation's capital city, reinforcing our long-term commitment to sustainable growth in the region.

"It also brings us closer to top local talent and makes access easier for our staff, clients and our partners."

The new office will be home to 90 employees.
