

The Chef Agency Goes Global with Launch of International Luxury Hotel Division

NEW YORK CITY, NY, UNITED STATES, April 23, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Chef Agency (TCA), a leading hospitality recruitment firm, officially launched its international division to meet the growing demand for skilled hospitality professionals at hotels and resorts in Mexico, Latin America and the Caribbean. Until now, the agency has focused exclusively on clients within the continental United States.

Established and headquartered in New York City since 2012, The Chef Agency specializes in permanent placements for full-time executive roles across luxury hospitality sectors. It supports recruitment for key roles such as General Manager, Executive Chef, Director of Food & Beverage, Director of Rooms and Resort Manager.

We're built for scale, but we move with agility. Our robust tech stack empowers us to efficiently source, vet, and match candidates, significantly reducing time-to-hire.”

CEO Steven Kamali

Founded by hospitality entrepreneur Steven Kamali, the agency is led by an experienced executive team including Kiki Myers, Chief Recruiting Officer, and Stacy Morataya-Pilkington, Director of Global Luxury Recruiting. Morataya-Pilkington brings more than three decades of leadership across hotels, guest ranches, and fine dining properties throughout the U.S. and Hawaii.

“The hotel market in the Caribbean and Latin America continues to go upmarket, moving the goalpost for brands and developers,” said CRO Kiki Myers. “Our recruiters are strategically positioned in over 40 markets, giving us a competitive edge in sourcing top-tier talent.”

What sets The Chef Agency apart is its ability to scale rapidly while maintaining speed and precision in talent delivery. Its proprietary database of more than one million qualified candidates and advanced recruitment technology enables the firm to place candidates quickly and efficiently. Additionally, with an engaged LinkedIn community of over 100,000 followers, The Chef Agency leverages its vast network to accelerate placements and expand its talent pipeline daily.

“We’re built for scale, but we move with agility,” said CEO Steven Kamali. “Our robust tech stack empowers us to efficiently source, vet, and match candidates, significantly reducing time-to-hire.”
