“We’re excited to launch Bozeman Outdoors, as a way to provide practical camping essentials that are made with high quality craftsmanship and sold for competitive prices,” said a spokesperson for Bozeman LLC. “We’ve been listening to the camping community, and we’re creating the kind of gear campers are already searching for.”

A Better Night’s Sleep in the Wild

The Bozeman Camping Pillow is built for comfort without compromise. Unlike inflatable pillows, which often leak or deflate overnight, Bozeman’s pillow features premium shredded memory foam—soft but supportive, and designed to mimic the feel of home.

Each 2-pack includes two medium-firm pillows that compress into compact travel sacks, making them easy to pack and carry. A washable, water-resistant cover keeps things clean and camp-ready, while bonus add-ons—like an included sleeping mask and earplugs—help campers get deep sleep even near noisy campsites.

Early feedback from product testers has highlighted the pillow’s reliability, softness, and ergonomic support—especially for campers who dislike inflatable designs. With no air valve to fail and no synthetic crinkle, this pillow aims to be a go-to sleep solution for tents, trucks, and trails alike.

Amazon-First Launch

Bozeman Outdoors products will launch exclusively on Amazon, allowing customers to find gear quickly and easily. The Bozeman Camping Pillow 2-Pack is available now, with more product releases slated for 2025.

Bozeman LLC is a veteran-founded company based in California. Known for COLETTI's best-selling coffee gear, the team brings the same level of attention and craftsmanship to Bozeman Outdoors—building gear that works, lasts, and travels well.
