Southeast Asia: A Strategic Pivot

As the United States continues to raise tariffs on Chinese imports, many manufacturers are re-evaluating their export strategies. Guangzhou Keyuan has responded decisively by redirecting its export resources to Southeast Asia — a region with stable trade conditions and rapid market expansion.

Southeast Asia, including countries like Vietnam, Thailand, Malaysia, Indonesia, and the Philippines, is experiencing a surge in demand for high-quality home and kitchen products, driven by a growing middle class and rising investments in home improvement. This makes the region a natural fit for Keyuan's modern, practical, and durable kitchen storage systems.
