

Tap Your News Launches Daily Email to Keep Cary, NC Residents Informed

Fast, free, and without politics—get caught up in under two minutes a day

CARY, NC, UNITED STATES, April 24, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Residents of Cary, North Carolina, now have an easier and calmer way to stay informed. Tap Your News, a new daily news email Cary, officially launched recently to help locals get up to speed on their community, in under two minutes a day.

People don't need more noise—they need clarity. I built Tap Your News to help you stay informed without wasting time. Just what matters, in under two minutes a day.”

Steve Rhode

Each daily email offers a quick snapshot of what's going on around town, including helpful updates on local headlines, crime reports, obituaries, community events, town government decisions, job openings, and even new homes for sale. No clickbait. No noise. Just the stuff that matters—delivered once a day, straight to your inbox.

“It's designed for people who want to be informed without falling into the scroll hole,” said Steve Rhode, founder of Tap Your News. “Whether it's a road closure, a local event, or a house for sale on your street, you'll get what you need without wasting time.”

Local resident Emily Jensen shared her experience after signing up. “I found Tap Your News through a friend, and it's honestly become my favorite part of the morning. I get what I need to know fast—and I don't have to sift through social media drama or endless articles.”

The service is free to subscribe to and was first piloted in Cary before expanding to additional communities. Early feedback has been overwhelmingly positive, especially from people who want to feel informed without feeling overwhelmed.

Cary residents can subscribe now to start receiving their daily local briefing.
