MANKATO, MN, UNITED STATES, April

30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kohlmeier Hagen Law Launches Educator of the Year Award to Honor Outstanding Local Educators!

Teachers shape our future, and too often their work goes unrecognized. This award is our way of shining a spotlight on the educators who go above and beyond for their students, families, and schools.”

Jason Kohlmeier, Partner KH Law

KH Law is proud to announce the launch of its annual Educator of the Year Award, designed to recognize and celebrate exceptional educators in the Mankato/ISD#77 area. The award includes a $500 cash prize, an award & public recognition of the winner. Nominations are being accepted and is open to public and private preschool or K-12 educators currently working in ISD77 area.

“Teachers shape our future, and too often their work goes unrecognized,” said Jason Kohlmeier, attorney and partner at KH Law. “As a former educator, I know how hard it is and this award is our way of shining a spotlight on the educators who go above and beyond for their students, families, and schools.”

Nominations are now open and anyone can nominate a deserving teacher—students, parents, fellow educators, or school staff. Nominations are simple and can be submitted through KH Law’s website at: <https://khmnlaw.com/teacher-of-the-year-award>

Submissions will be accepted through May 15th. The selected teacher will be announced shortly thereafter and publicly recognized by KH Law.
