

Mic Lowther Delivers Mystery, Adventure, and a High-Stakes Chase for Hidden Fortune in Seventeen Parcels

A Gripping Treasure Hunt Across America

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, April 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "Seventeen Parcels" takes readers on an exhilarating journey filled with intrigue, secrets, and an unconventional treasure hunt. Mic Lowther's latest novel keeps readers guessing as three heirs embark on a cross-country quest to claim their inheritance—if it even exists.

When billionaire Xander Moorhouse passes away, his three grown children—Caroline, David, and Juliana—discover that their vast inheritance is not simply handed to them. Instead, Moorhouse leaves behind instructions directing them to seventeen parcels hidden across the United States. The only way to unlock their potential fortune is to locate every parcel and open them in a specific sequence.

What follows is a journey of discovery and suspense. With each new clue, the heirs must confront personal doubts, hidden family tensions, and unexpected twists. Readers will be drawn into the mystery, piecing together the puzzle alongside the characters while encountering obstacles, surprises, and revelations at every turn.

An author and adventurer, Mic Lowther brings decades of experience to his storytelling. Having worked as a computer programmer and systems analyst across nine states, Lowther's writing reflects his deep appreciation for exploration and adventure. His past works include non-fiction and children's literature, with "Seventeen Parcels" marking his debut novel.

Readers can join this compelling road trip mystery at the LA Times Festival of Books by visiting Olympus Story House Booth #182 (Gold Zone), South Trowsdale.
