A Critical Time for Skin Exams: May Is Skin Cancer Awareness Month

One in five Americans will develop skin cancer by the age of 70. Early detection saves lives, and there is no better time than Skin Cancer Awareness Month to schedule a full-body skin exam with a board-certified dermatologist. Skin cancer affects people both physically and emotionally — it is personal, it is serious, and early diagnosis makes a profound difference.

Dr. Nethers brings a deeply personal commitment to skin cancer detection and treatment, inspired by his own family's history with the disease. His passion led him to participate in groundbreaking melanoma research that contributes to national treatment guidelines. At Cardinal Dermatology Center, every patient will benefit from his experience, compassion, and focus on early detection.

“Our goal is to bring timely, expert dermatologic care to this community at a time when it is needed most,” said Dr. Nethers. “Especially during Skin Cancer Awareness Month, we encourage everyone to take their skin health seriously and schedule a screening. It can truly save lives.”
