Celebrity Padel & Soccer Tournament and U.S. Talent Tryouts Draw Major Attention

From April 25-27, 2025, the Turkish Football Federation (TFF), under the leadership of Çağrı Kanver, Deputy Chairman of the TFF Foreign Relations Executive Board responsible for the U.S., hosted a memorable sports and culture gathering in Miami. The event marked a significant step in strengthening sports diplomacy between Turkey and the United States.

The weekend kicked off with a Padel & Soccer Celebrity Tournament, featuring NBA star Duncan McBryde Robinson, luxury real estate entrepreneur Wayne Boich, former college quarterback Wilton Speight, Breaking Bad actor Luis Moncada, actress Claire Rhiannon Holt, and padel champion Juan Martinez Diaz. The night also welcomed the Republic of Turkey's Consul General in Miami, Resul Şahinol, and was highlighted by thrilling matches, traditional Turkish cuisine, and a high-energy DJ performance.

Over the next two days, 55 young athletes from across the United States participated in TFF U.S. Talent Tryouts. Their performances were carefully evaluated by TFF Development Director Emrah Bayraktar and U-21 National Team Head Coach Gökhan Gönül. The results will be announced in the coming days.

This milestone event represents the Turkish Football Federation's commitment to discovering international talents and building future bridges between Turkey and the global football community. The success of these first U.S. tryouts sets a strong foundation for upcoming
