

Copera.ai Debuts at Web Summit Rio — Cutting 1-Hour Meetings to 3 Minutes With Scheduled AI Calls

The all-in-one communication, collaboration and AI platform launches today at Web Summit Rio.

LEHI, UT, UNITED STATES, April 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LEHI, Utah (2901 W. Bluegrass Blvd., Suite 200) — April 30 2025 — Rio de Janeiro, Brazil — Booth B117, Pavilion 4

Copera.ai, the all-in-one communication, collaboration and AI platform, launches today at Web Summit Rio. By unifying chat, voice/video “Gathering Spaces,” boards, docs, drive and a context-aware AI assistant, Copera replaces up to seven siloed SaaS tools and turns marathon stand-ups into three-minute asynchronous check-ins.

“AI is only as powerful as the platform around it,” said Junior Rodrigues, Co-Founder & CEO. “We built Copera so AI can do the work, not just talk about it. Our Scheduled AI Calls already save our 11-person team nearly five hours a week — and that’s just one workflow.”

Key Features:

Scheduled AI Calls — the AI dials each teammate in their language, gathers updates and auto-posts an agenda-formatted summary to any channel.

Smart To-Dos & Boards — merge tasks, CRM-style tables and Google Calendar events; unfinished items auto-rollover.

Gathering Spaces with live AI notes — one-click voice rooms that transcribe, summarise and e-mail minutes to internal and external attendees.

Search-from-anywhere bar — launch commands (!ai for Copera AI, @web for live web search) without leaving the keyboard.

No-size-limit file sharing — uploads >50 MB land in Copera Drive automatically.
