"The caliber of work showcased at this year's festival demonstrates the remarkable evolution of fulldome as both an art form and a powerful tool for education and storytelling," said Ryan Moore, Executive Director of Dome Fest West. "From cutting-edge interactive experiences to deeply moving narrative journeys, these winning productions represent the boundless creative potential of the dome."

Following the awards ceremony, attendees experienced the sold-out "Altered Realms: Psychedelic Journeys, Healing Waves, and Cosmic Wisdom" program—a transcendent exploration of perception, sound, and philosophy designed specifically for the 360° dome environment.

The program featured an eclectic lineup of consciousness-expanding works:

Samósura
Our Oasis
Have a Safe Trip
White Birds Worship the Phoenix
LIMBOPHOBIA
The Ark 2.22.22 (Selections From Live Show)
Trust The Universe: The Philosophy of Alan Watts

"The Altered Realms program exemplifies our commitment to pushing boundaries in immersive storytelling," Moore added. "These works invite audiences to experience the dome not just as a venue for entertainment or education, but as a transformative space for self-discovery and expanded consciousness."

Dome Fest West 2025 concludes today after four days of screenings, workshops, exhibits, and live performances. The festival's growth—including the addition of the inaugural Fulldome Forward Expo—reflects the expanding interest in fulldome experiences across artistic, educational, and commercial applications.

Planning is already underway for Dome Fest West 2026, with dates to be announced later this year.
