Major Payroll Issues for Small Companies

Financial decision-makers and small business owners face several challenges when handling payroll internally:

1) Complicated Compliance

Requirements: Federal regulations and Kentucky tax laws combine to produce a complex compliance environment that necessitates experience.

2) High Error Risks: Processing payroll by hand raises the possibility of errors, fines, and unhappy workers.

3) Limited Internal Resources: A lack of specialized payroll employees causes inefficiencies and delays in operations for many small organizations.

4) Data Security Vulnerabilities: Many small firms find it difficult to put strong protection in place for sensitive payroll data.

5) Expensive In-House Management: Outsourcing is a more prudent financial choice because maintaining payroll accounting software and staff puts a strain on budgets.
