

Egg Hunts & Brunch Bliss: Easter Weekend Elegance Blooms at Southampton Inn

The Seasonal Renewal of the East End has Arrived with Easter Weekend Festivities

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, April 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Easter Weekend 2025 at the Southampton Inn was exciting as families, friends, and longtime Hamptons lovers gathered to celebrate spring's arrival with timeless traditions and a touch of East End elegance.

Located in the heart of Southampton Village, just steps from local boutiques, cultural attractions, and the ocean breeze of Coopers Beach, the Southampton Inn once again proved itself as the go-to destination for holidays that feel both intimate and unforgettable. The weekend welcomed both returning guests and first-time visitors, all eager to embrace the joys of spring in the Hamptons.

The Easter festivities began On Easter Sunday where the star of the show was the brunch at Claude's Restaurant. Here the new food and beverage team presented a classic traditional Hamptons brunch. Guests indulged in egg dishes, pancakes and French toast, smoked salmon, house-made pastries, and fresh fruits. Indoor seating buzzed with festive chatter, while guests who opted for al fresco dining on Claude's patio enjoyed the sunshine and spring breeze.

On Easter morning, children dashed across the South Lawn for the 25th Annual Easter Egg Hunt, delighting in the search for brightly colored eggs filled with sweets and surprises. The Easter Bunny, of course, made his grand appearance, posing for family photos and sharing hugs with
