"devoured this food!! it is so yum. we got the mixed spread mezze. the spicy feta dip and hummus was my fave. I then got the Terina, sooo good. it's like layers of eggplant and feta baked in a tomato based sauce. we also got stuffed peppers with rice. the peppers themselves were a little sweet but it came with a side of lemon potatoes that were to die for. I want to come back and try more dishes! the patio ambiance in the summer is beautiful."

"If you're ever in the Princeton, New Jersey area, I highly recommend the Local Greek restaurant, located at 44 Leigh Avenue in Princeton. My companion & I haven't eaten much Greek food for comparison, but we heard several fellow diners say that the food served here is authentic Greek fare. We shared two entrees, the Moussakas & the Greek Gyro Platter. Both meals were delicious! Moussakas is a casserole made of ground beef, bechamel sauce, eggplant & potato. The Greek Gyro Platter was available with a choice of chicken, beef, lamb or pork, veggies or zucchini fritters, wrapped in a pita with tzatziki, onions & tomatoes. It's served with the village salad & one side. We chose the chicken option & the Greek style lemon potatoes for our side dish. We were both quite pleased with our selections.... Our server was Evelina, who was very sweet, efficient & appropriately attentive to us. Kudos also to the support staff who hustled to refill water glasses & clear away empty plates. For dessert, we shared a good sized serving of Baklava, which is a traditional, layered pastry made from filo pastry, almonds, walnuts & Greek honey. We finished off our meal with Greek coffee. My only regret is that we don't live in the area because the Local Greek restaurant would definitely be on our Go-To List!"

"We had an amazing dinner at Local Greek in Princeton last night. Restaurant has a great atmosphere with white tile walls and comfortable, wooden tables. It has a nice vibe. The food was delicious. We had Dolmades and Octopus for appetizers and two awesome lamb dishes for dinner (Lamb shank and Mistos lamb). Our server, Ricardo, was friendly, knowledgeable and professional. We will ask for him again!"

"My experience at this store was a really wonderful time. I came from Japan and was warmly welcomed by my colleagues at my American company. At that time, I came to this Greek restaurant through the introduction of a person from Turkey. All the dishes are delicious and culturally distinctive, and I am very satisfied. The atmosphere of the shop is a homely space where you can relax. You can bring your own alcohol, so you can enjoy your favorite wine with the restaurant's food. We were able to enjoy the unique Greek delicacies until the final dessert. I want to go again."

The Local Greek of Princeton team consistently prepares delicious, authentic Greek food for their customers.
