

Waves of Wonderland: Taiwan's Celebration of Culture, Creativity, and Community Hits LA

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, May 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- At Westfield Century City on April 12, 2025, visitors were brought on a mini vacation to Taiwan — no passport required. Taiwan Tourism's "Waves of Wonderland" event transformed the shopping center's atrium into a buzzing, colorful celebration of all things Taiwan.

The entire space felt like stepping into a vibrant street fair. Kids and adults alike wandered through six interactive booths — from traditional Taiwanese games to sand art and umbrella painting. The night market pitching game became a fan favorite, drawing a constant crowd of people eager to try their luck and win one of the many prizes.

Each activity booth featured a wealth of giveaways, and one lucky visitor walked away with a free flight to Taiwan, courtesy of STARLUX Airlines.

The festivities didn't stop there. Taiwan's adorable mascot, OhBear, was available throughout the day for selfies. At the #DanceToTaiwan booth, China Airlines sponsored three flights to Taiwan, where participants could bust a move to the catchy "Dance to the Waves of Wonder” anthem. For those who didn’t get a chance to join in, good news — there’s still time to enter. Anyone who records their own version and uploads it at DanceToTaiwan.com by June 17 will have a chance to win free round-trip tickets to Taiwan.

Taiwan Tourism isn’t done celebrating — they’ll be out in full rainbow force at the LA Pride Parade on June 8, complete with a fabulous float and a booth at the Pride Village. So, for those who missed the April festivities, there’s still an opportunity in June to experience the magic of Taiwan.
