Managing Partner of Melone
Hatley*

Melone Hatley, P.C., known for its compassionate yet assertive legal approach, has expanded its reach over the past decade to include several Virginia locations, including Virginia Beach, Richmond, Newport News, and Reston, as well as offices in Tampa, Florida, and Columbia, South Carolina. This new expansion into the Fort Worth area marks the firm's seventh location, further extending its commitment to providing personalized, results-driven legal services to families and individuals in need. The Fort Worth office will provide a full array of family law services, including divorce, separation, adoption, modifications, child custody, and child support matters.

Lelan Kirk, Esq. will lead the Fort Worth team. With over ten years of family law experience, Mr. Kirk is looking forward to heading up Melone Hatley's first office in Texas and serving this new client base.

"We're excited to bring our services to Fort Worth and surrounding communities," said Rebecca Melone, founder and owner. "Our expansion allows us to continue to bring our personalized approach to law to families in Texas with the same dedication and integrity that remains the hallmark of our firm."

Melone Hatley, P.C. is proud to be a leader in supporting the legal needs of families and believes the new office in Fort Worth will allow them to continue to make a positive impact in the communities they serve.
