

Steelite International Expands Presence at 2025 National Restaurant Association Show with Three Unique Booths

Steelite International is set to make a strong statement at the 2025 National Restaurant Association Show, taking place May 17–20 at McCormick Place in Chicago.

YOUNGSTOWN, OH, UNITED STATES, April 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Steelite International is set to make a strong statement at the 2025 National Restaurant Association Show, taking place May 17–20 at McCormick Place in Chicago. This year, the company will exhibit across three distinct booths, each designed to highlight a different aspect of its expansive tabletop portfolio.

At the main Steelite booth (#6612), visitors will discover the latest product launches, including a spotlight on Steelite Core, a streamlined offering of essential items built for performance and versatility. Also featured is Alina, the award-winning dinnerware collection recognized with both the Red Dot Award for Product Design and the Tableware International Award of Excellence. With its clean lines and modern profile, Alina exemplifies the harmony of beauty and function that defines Steelite's design philosophy. Joining these innovations is the Creations Axis Buffet Collection, designed with clean, linear risers that bring structure and limitless configuration options to the modern buffet.

Our expanded presence this year reflects the strength and diversity of our portfolio”

Alison Clingensmith, Director of Marketing for Steelite

Debuting at the show, the Steelite Elements booth (#5827) introduces a new approach to value-driven tabletop with the theme “Stunning Table, Simply Priced.” This new space showcases cost-effective solutions from brands like Homer Laughlin, Hall China, Walco, Pasabahce, Hollowick, and Diversified Ceramics, delivering quality and style at accessible price points.

In the Pasabahce booth (#6016), Steelite brings together leading global glassware brands—Pasabahce, Utopia, and Nude—offering a range of styles from durable everyday glass to elegant, design-forward pieces.

With a broader presence and a dynamic mix of new products, Steelite International invites attendees to explore the full scope of its offerings across all three booths. “Our expanded presence this year reflects the strength and diversity of our portfolio,” said Alison Clingensmith, Marketing Director at Steelite International. “By showcasing our brands across three unique booths, we are giving customers a broader view of what Steelite has to offer, from elevated design to practical, everyday solutions.”
