YORBA LINDA, CA, UNITED STATES, April 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Maureen Anne Meehan's crime thriller, HIGHWAY TO JUSTICE, a Mary MacIntosh Novel, takes readers on a thrilling journey through the horse capital of the world, Ocala, Florida, where Southern charm meets dark, dangerous secrets. Set against the backdrop of the picturesque horse farms, lush pastures, and natural beauty of the region, this gripping novel uncovers the hidden underbelly of a city known for its equestrian industry and its shocking crime rate.

HIGHWAY TO JUSTICE, a Mary MacIntosh Novel

Known for its rolling hills, Silver Springs State Park, and thriving equine culture, Ocala offers a picturesque setting that contrasts sharply with the grim reality of its crime statistics. With a violent crime rate significantly higher than the national average, the city is no stranger to criminal activity. As HIGHWAY TO JUSTICE unfolds, it explores the chilling presence of a female serial killer who leaves a string of victims across central Florida's highways, recalling the infamous Aileen Wuornos case of the 1980s.

As Marion County, Florida's crime rate continues to rise, this riveting novel follows protagonist Mary MacIntosh as she investigates a series of brutal crimes that bear an eerie resemblance to Wuornos's murders. The dark side of the beautiful landscape sets the stage for a suspenseful journey where justice is anything but certain.

"HIGHWAY TO JUSTICE weaves together the allure of Ocala with a haunting mystery that unravels piece by piece. It's a compelling mix of true crime inspiration and thrilling fiction," said Maureen

Anne Meehan, author of the Mary MacIntosh series.
