

Tedi Tuttle Releases New Children's Book: Sadie Spider Does Lunch

SALT LAKE CITY, UT, UNITED STATES, April 30, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Tedi Tuttle is pleased to announce the release of her latest children's book, Sadie Spider Does Lunch. This whimsical story invites young readers to join Sadie, a curious little spider, as she embarks on an unexpected adventure that sparks curiosity and delight. Ideal for children ages 3–8, Sadie Spider Does Lunch is a heartwarming exploration of food, nature, and the joy of discovery.

On a peaceful pre-spring day, Sadie's quiet routine is interrupted—sending her on a journey where she meets not creatures, but one very surprising ladybug. Through this encounter, young readers are gently guided to appreciate the value of kindness, curiosity, and the simple pleasures of life. The story's lyrical tone and vivid illustrations bring Sadie's world to life, encouraging imagination and gentle reflection.

"I wanted to write a book that speaks to children's natural curiosity and love of adventure," says Tedi Tuttle. "Sadie Spider is an adventurous little creature who shows kids that even the smallest changes in our routine can lead to wonderful discoveries."

Tuttle has been writing for over 30 years, crafting a diverse range of books including autobiographical stories, cookbooks, and children's literature. Her writing is inspired by family, nature, and moments of everyday magic. Notably, Cock-a-doodle-doo, I Love You was created from a phrase her son came up with at just four years old and was published when he was six.
