MSquash Academy Invites Press to Historic Women's National Squash League Match of the new National Squash league in South Norwalk: Sono Sharks vs. Lake Erie Beacons

NORWALK, Conn. - May 3, 2025 - MSquash Academy, led by 2024 U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Committee Squash Coach of the Year Katline Cauwels, invites members of the press to witness the inaugural match of the Women's National Squash League featuring the home team, the Sono Sharks. This landmark event marks the first-ever professional women's squash league team match and a significant step forward for the sport as it prepares for its Olympic debut in Los Angeles 2028.

Sono Sharks Professional Squash Team

The Sono Sharks will compete against the Lake Erie Beacons from Ohio this weekend, showcasing an international roster of top-tier talent, including Salma Hany (World #12, Egypt), Marina Stefanoni (World #33, USA), Margot Prow (Barbados), and Yashmita Kumar (Malaysia). The event promises an evening of exciting competition and a glimpse into the future of professional squash.

"This is an extraordinary moment for the sport of squash," said Katline Cauwels. "Our goal is to inspire the next generation of squash players and empower young women to pursue their dreams in sport and beyond."
