Dating back to 1884, the property has been welcoming guests since 1984, offering the charms of authentic Hawaii plantation homes. The resort offers 59 one- to five-bedroom cottages, built between the 1880s and 1930s, across 43 acres of oceanfront grounds. Harmonizing contemporary comfort with the simplicity of the plantation era, each cottage features a fully equipped kitchen and a private lanai.

Guests can enjoy the oceanfront pool, a 2-mile-long black-sand walking beach, and an on-site restaurant serving American and BBQ fare. Beachside hammocks, three propane grilling stations, a sand volleyball court, and a shuffleboard court round out the experience.

Nearby are some of Kauai's most loved attractions: the awe-inspiring Waimea Canyon, known as the "Grand Canyon of the Pacific;" Koke'e State Park; the breathtaking Napali coastline; and Kekaha Beach, one of Hawaii's longest white-sand beaches. For those seeking local charm, Waimea Town and nearby Hanapepe Town offer eclectic boutiques and fun eateries.
