

Soriano Motori, Ricasoli Group and PVJets Partner for Historic Monaco E-Prix Double-Header Weekend

SORIANO cannot simply stop being at the forefront to e-mobility in all aspects of the word

MONACO, MONTE CARLO, MONACO, May 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Soriano Motori, under the leadership of entrepreneur and innovation advocate Mr. Marco Antonio Soriano, is proud to announce a premier collaboration with PV Jets, helmed by the Managing Partner Osvaldo Ursano, for a landmark weekend during the 2025 Monaco E-Prix double-header — the first of its kind in the Principality's Formula E history.

SORIANO invites all of its sorianisti to come and enjoy the event of the year

This year marks Season 11 of the ABB FIA Formula E World Championship, with Rounds 6 and 7 taking place on Saturday, May 3 and Sunday, May 4 in Monte Carlo. With a backdrop of electric racing history and fierce on-track battles, this weekend promises both spectacle and significance.

This is more than a motorsport event; it's a platform for progress. We're uniting performance, innovation, and responsibility at one of the most iconic destinations in the world.”

SORIANO

“This is more than a motorsport event; it's a platform for progress,” said Marco Antonio Soriano, Founder of Soriano Motori. “We're uniting performance, innovation, and responsibility at one of the most iconic destinations in the world.”

As a distinguished VIP guest of the Monaco E-Prix, Mr.

Soriano will join a select circle of top industry executives, sustainability leaders, and government representatives in a series of private discussions and high-level forums focused on the future of green technology, mobility infrastructure, and electrification of transport.

“Marco Antonio Soriano represents the cutting edge of what e-mobility stands for — not just as a manufacturer, but as a thought leader in sustainable innovation,” added Osvaldo Ursano, CEO of Ricasoli Group. “Together, we’re not just spectators of the future — we’re shaping it.”

This historic double-header event showcases:

- 24 lead changes in the past four races, making Monaco a hotbed for competition;
- Every race decided by less than three seconds;
- Record-breaking performances like Jean-Eric Vergne’s 15-position climb in Season 9;
- Dominance from teams like Jaguar TCS Racing, with six combined podiums from its current drivers in Monaco;
- Pascal Wehrlein’s unmatched qualifying record with three front-row starts.

Soriano Motori and Ricasoli Group will co-host VIP activations, luxury hospitality experiences, and invite-only gatherings celebrating the intersection of luxury engineering and sustainable mobility.

With 16 global cities having now hosted a Formula E double-header, Monaco’s debut promises to be unparalleled in glamour, competition, and influence.

Mark your calendar: May 3–4, 2025 — when electric racing meets elite vision in Monte Carlo.
