

Ranger Band Alumni Association Endorses Jeanne Johnson and Jason Steele for Kilgore College Board of Trustees

KILGORE, TX, UNITED STATES, May 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Ranger Band Alumni Association Group proudly endorses two distinguished candidates for the Kilgore College Board of Trustees: Jeanne Johnson for Central Zone, Voting Unit #3, Place 9, and Jason Steele for North Zone, Voting Unit #2, Place 8.

Both candidates are alumni of Kilgore College and former members of the Ranger Band. Their long-standing dedication to the college, along with their professional and community service backgrounds, make them uniquely qualified to help guide Kilgore College into the future.

Jeanne Johnson spent more than 40 years as an educator at Kilgore College, including 25 years as Chair of the Music Department. Her decades of service reflect a deep commitment to students, faculty, and the continued success of Kilgore College. Johnson is widely respected for her insight, institutional knowledge, and passion for restoring campus life and growing enrollment.

Jason Steele is a graduate of Kilgore College and UT Tyler. He brings experience as an educator, consultant, and contractor, with a strong background in school finance and business. Jason is also a former member of the KC Music Program and a lifelong advocate for the college. He recently received the endorsement of longtime Trustee Larry Woodfin, who stepped down and called Jason the right person to carry the torch forward.

"Kilgore College changed my life," said Steele. "It is something I want to protect and improve so that future students have the same incredible opportunities I did."
