The addition of Jacobson Holman expands DBL's current intellectual property practice area by offering clients enhanced capabilities in patent prosecution, trademark registration, IP litigation, and international portfolio management. Jacobson Holman's distinguished team of IP attorneys, with their specialized technical backgrounds and deep understanding of international IP frameworks, perfectly complements DBL's existing strengths, positioning the unified firm to deliver unparalleled intellectual property services to clients navigating increasingly complex global markets.

This strategic combination allows us to offer even more comprehensive IP services while maintaining the personalized approach both our firms are known for.”

Thomas Dunlap, Managing Partner, Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig

“We are excited to join forces with Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig, a firm whose vision and commitment to client service align perfectly with our own,” said Harvey Jacobson, one of the founding partners of Jacobson Holman.

Jacobson Holman brings an exceptional litigation track record, having served as lead counsel in numerous trials and appeals across the intellectual property spectrum—from complex patent infringement cases to trade dress disputes and licensing conflicts. The firm's courtroom experience is matched by its remarkable prosecution expertise, having successfully prepared, filed, and advanced tens of thousands patent and trademark applications for clients worldwide.

This depth of practical experience across every facet of intellectual property protection enhances DBL's ability to offer clients comprehensive, IP solutions from conception through enforcement.

"Joining Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig enables us to offer our clients an expanded suite of legal services while bringing our decades of international intellectual property expertise to DBL's impressive platform. Together, we'll deliver unparalleled IP protection strategies that transcend borders and help innovators safeguard their most valuable assets in today's global marketplace," stated Jace Holman, one of the founding partners of Jacobson Holman.

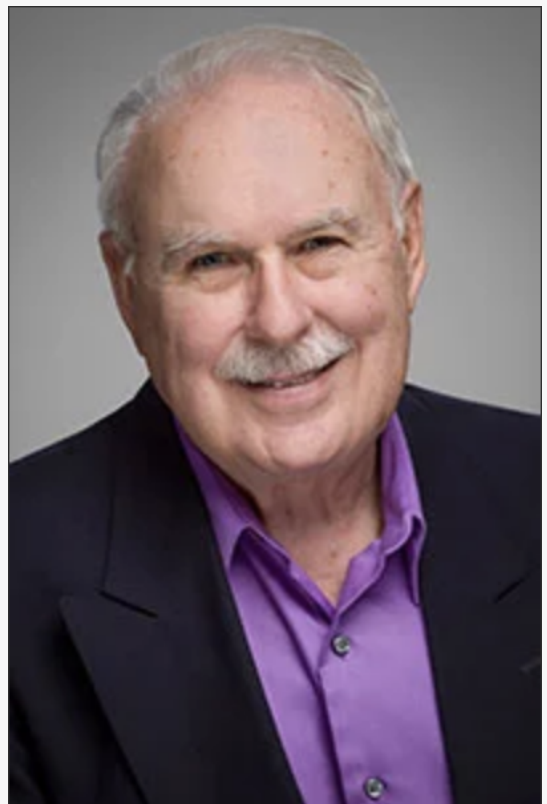

Thomas Dunlap, Managing Partner at Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig, added, "[w]e are thrilled to welcome Jacobson Holmen to the Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig family. Their vast experience and sterling reputation, as a Washington, DC intellectual property law firm, brings tremendous value to our clients. Harvey Jacobson and Jace Holman have established themselves as formidable forces in patent prosecution, serving global clients with distinction. Along with their outstanding team, including Partners, Robert Pierce and John Luce, they strengthen our intellectual property practice in ways that will immediately benefit our clients. This strategic combination allows us to offer even more comprehensive IP services while maintaining the personalized approach both our firms are known for."
