She will continue to further the organization's community presence and reach, along with ensuring that as the industry's only full-service brokerage with every service in-house, Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices New England and New York Properties continues to be the leader it has been.

"Throughout my journey here, I've been focused on building a strong, people-first culture, one that's rooted in service, empowered leadership, and operational excellence," said Maher. "I've had the privilege of helping guide our organization through growth and change, always with an eye toward long-term sustainability and meaningful connection."

"I look forward to continue serving our agents and clients alongside Brenda (Maher)," said

Candace Adams, now Chair of Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices New England and New York Properties, and Executive Vice President of HomeServices of America. "As we enter this new stage of our company's growth and evolution, Brenda is ideally suited to move our team forward and further our growth."

A successful industry veteran, prior to joining Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices, Maher held executive positions with Realogy, Sotheby's International Realty, and William Raveis Real Estate.

Maher holds an MS, Real Estate from New York University, and has been named a Woman of FIRE by The Commercial Record and a RIS Media, Newsmaker | Luminary.
