NEWPORT BEACH, CA, UNITED STATES, May 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BLU3, a subsidiary of Brownie's Marine Group and the leader in portable surface-supplied diving systems, and SeaNXT, creator of the Elite next-generation electric water scooter, are proud to announce their participation in the Newport Beach International Boat Show, running May 1-4, 2025 at Lido Marina Village.

In partnership with Catalina Crew, BLU3 and SeaNXT will be exhibiting on Dock Linda, where attendees can get a firsthand look at the SeaNXT Elite water scooter and BLU3's cutting-edge dive systems, including Nomad and Nomad Mini. For anyone interested in multi-diver systems, BLU3 is a sister company of Brownie's Third Lung which released its innovative 3-diver Sea Lion lithium ion dive system in 2018.

"This show is a perfect opportunity to showcase how our products add value to the luxury boating experience and we couldn't be more thrilled for this partnership with Catalina Crew," said Blake Carmichael, CEO of BLU3. "If you are ready to see the latest and greatest in water toys, the interactive booth with product demos from Catalina Crew is the place to be. And in the case of BLU3, Nomad is not only a toy but an essential tool for boat-owners to access the bottom of their boats. This makes it an invaluable piece of equipment for the boat, and it comes in a small backpack so it's really a no-brainer to have onboard."

The SeaNXT Elite lineup offers a stunning range of colors—Black, Green, Blue, Red, and Gold—each crafted from premium carbon fiber to combine style, performance, and durability for underwater exploration.
