This endearing children's book is already winning hearts across digital bookstores like Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and more. It is currently available worldwide and featured on BookBub.

Children's Book Author, Renee Servello

Based on a true story, the book follows Petey, a curious and spirited little pug who lives near a busy golf facility. With each passing day, Petey watches the hustle and bustle just beyond the "no dogs allowed" fence—until one day, temptation gets the better of him. In a blink, Petey slips under the fence and dashes into the great unknown, igniting a 24-hour escapade that's equal parts chaos and cuteness.

Once inside the golf course, Petey's wild side takes over. He sprints after flying golf balls, dodges golf carts, and wins the hearts of everyone he meets. His curiosity leads him straight into the arms of golf course staff members who, although surprised, instantly fall for the pug's playful charm. From cuddle sessions to impromptu rides on maintenance carts, Petey becomes the unlikely star of the green.

As night falls, the adventure continues when a warmhearted employee named Ty decides to take

Petey home. Their unexpected sleepover is filled with cozy moments, bonding, and belly rubs. But even in the excitement of new experiences, Petey begins to long for his home. The next day brings a joyful reunion with his family, and with it, an important life lesson for young readers: “Stay with your family—they’ll miss you if you’re gone.”

‘Petey the Pug Escapes for 24 Hours’ is more than a light-hearted tale. It’s a celebration of adventure, community kindness, and the unconditional love between pets and their people. Parents, teachers, and young readers alike will enjoy this easy-to-read, heartwarming story that subtly delivers themes of belonging and the importance of home.
