Last week, Bonamassa announced his brand new studio album Breakthrough which is now available for pre-order and will drop on July 18th via his J&R Adventures label. Today, Joe dropped the new official music video for the title track which can be viewed HERE. Breakthrough, a soulful, hard-hitting anthem about letting go, moving forward, and finding your fire again, is also available on all streaming platforms. He has previously released two powerful new singles—"Still Walking With Me" and "Shake This Ground"—offering an exciting preview of his next studio album. Co-written with Tom Hambridge and James House respectively and produced by longtime collaborator Kevin Shirley, the songs reflect a genre-blending musical journey of Bonamassa's persona.

Bonomassa is currently on tour across Europe which is garnering high praise from fans and critics alike. Music News raves, "A night of limitless flair and unparalleled virtuosity finds the King of Blues-Rock in masterful form" and Raw Ramp exclaims, "What a performance! What a show!"

What a night! By day, and by the minute... and most certainly by the fretboard tweeze, Bonamassa excels! A spectacular event!"

In June, Bonamassa will reunite with Glenn Hughes, Jason Bonham, and Derek Sherinian for a special European tour with his powerhouse supergroup Black Country Communion which will headline shows in 10 select cities across the continent.

While overseas for his EU Summer Tour, Bonamassa will also perform an exclusive three-night run in Cork, Ireland, paying tribute to the legendary Rory Gallagher. The special engagement—organized by the iconic Aiken Promotions in collaboration with Gallagher's family—marks the 30th anniversary of the beloved guitarist's passing.

Looking ahead, Bonamassa's 2025 U.S. Summer Tour will feature a limited run of outdoor performances at iconic venues like Red Rocks Amphitheatre, the Greek Theatre, and Vina Robles Amphitheatre and many other iconic venues. Come September, the hardest-working man in show business returns for a handful of special stateside shows including a Bourbon & Beyond Festival set before setting sail on the sold-out, inaugural Keeping the Blues Alive at Sea ALASKA cruise. The star-studded lineup for this unforgettable voyage includes Marcus King, Little Feat, Marc Broussard, The Record Company, The Heavy Heavy, Sue Foley, and many more.

Even with a packed performance calendar, Bonamassa continues to make time for his many philanthropic and entrepreneurial pursuits. His Keeping the Blues Alive Foundation has raised more than $2.8 million to date, funding music education programs and providing critical relief to musicians in need. With over 50 albums, a relentless touring schedule, and an unmatched work ethic, Bonamassa shows no signs of slowing down. This Fall's U.S. tour promises to be another powerhouse run, showcasing new material alongside fan favorites in venues known for their acoustics, intimacy, and history. About Joe Bonamassa:

Blues-rock superstar Joe Bonamassa is one of the most celebrated performing musicians of today. As a four-time GRAMMY-nominated artist and 15x Blues Music Award Nominee (4-time winner), he achieved his 28th No.1 album on the Billboard Blues Chart with his most recent live album and concert film, Live at the Hollywood Bowl With Orchestra. With new music being released every month, Bonamassa is reaching many new music fans across the world. Only in his mid-40s, Bonamassa has become a living legend with an astounding multi-genre catalog with more than 50 albums released, including studio and live recordings, as well as collaborative albums with his adventurous side projects: Black Country Communion and Rock Candy Funk Party.

A prolific writer who is always on the hunt to expand his eclectic musical horizons, Bonamassa has a limitless work ethic whether it's in the studio, on the road, or working with other artists to spur new music. In recent years, he has produced an immense number of albums including Joanne Shaw Taylor, Marc Broussard, Larry McCray, Jimmy Hall, and others for his independent labels Journeyman Records and KTBA Records, and has also launched Journeyman LLC, a full-service artist management, record label, concert promotion, and marketing company that builds awareness for independent artists worldwide.
