

World Fellowship Ride Charity Promotes the Franki Moscato Foundation

American Idol Winner's Suicide Prevention Cause Chosen by World Motorcycle Movement

OSHKOSH, WI, UNITED STATES, May 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In its second year in the United States, the (May 10th) Fellowship Ride will gift all its event donations to the Franki Moscato Foundation to fight teen suicide in Wisconsin. Last year's ride event raised over ten thousand dollars.

Fellows Ride, known in the U.S.A. as the "Fellowship Ride," was founded by Dieter Schneider after the loss of his 23-year-old son to suicide. Schneider conducts rides in countries worldwide, including Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Romania, Portugal, Norway, and the U.S.A. See: FellowsRide.com

After learning about the good work Franki is doing for promoting adolescent mental health, my team unanimously chose her Wisconsin foundation”

The ride and festivities are hosted by the Wolf River H.O.G. Chapter of Shawano County, WI, and will occur in and around Doc's Harley-Davidson of Bonduel. Doc's is well-known for its spectacular patio, restaurant, antique shop, zoo, museum, and showroom. See: DocsHD.com

The Franki Moscato Foundation headquarters are in Oshkosh, WI. Leading this non-profit organization is Franki Moscato, a 23-year-old music artist who has been an active advocate for teen suicide prevention since she was eleven.

Moscato is best known as a regular Anthem singer for the Green Bay Packers and for winning the Golden Ticket on the 2019 season of ABC's American Idol.

The proceeds of the FELLOWSHIP RIDE will be used to produce and broadcast a Public Service

Announcement that will be selected from an associated state-wide student video contest for the best suicide prevention film.

"After learning about the good work Franki is doing for promoting adolescent mental health, my team unanimously chose her Wisconsin foundation," exclaimed Schneider.
