LebaneseTweety Is Reclaiming Pop With Global Bite and Unbothered Precision
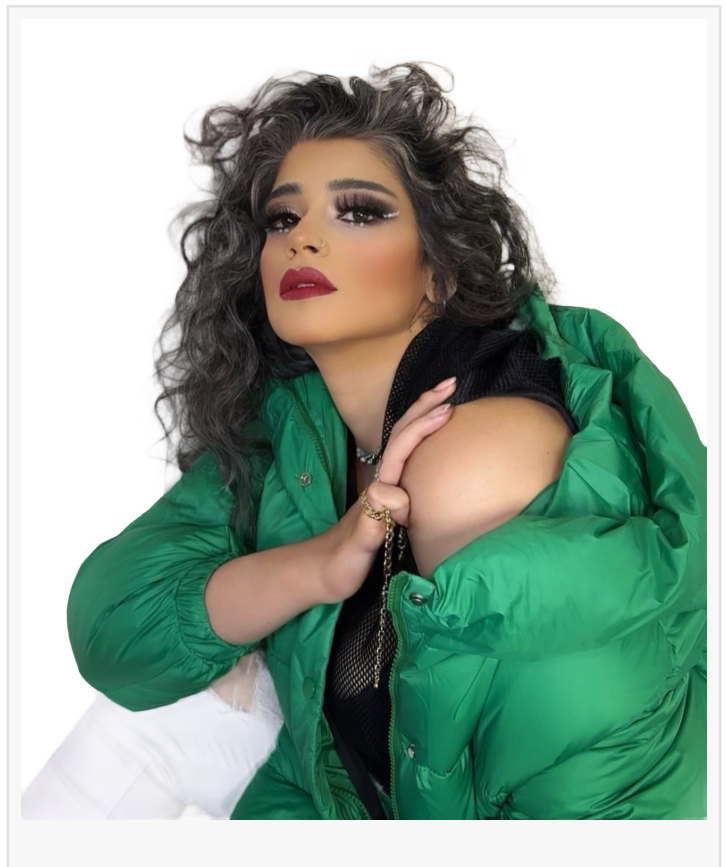

LebaneseTweety blends Arabic soul, international hip hop, and alternative flair—carving her own fierce space in global pop culture.

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, May 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rising artist LebaneseTweety is pushing the boundaries of pop music with a sharp-edged blend of Arabic soul, global hip hop, and emotionally driven alt-pop precision. Based in Chicago with roots that stretch across Lebanon, her music fuses cultural duality with fierce autonomy—redefining what it means to be a global artist in 2025.

LebaneseTweety doesn't just sing—she writes, engineers, produces, and plays guitar on her own records.

"I'm not interested in fitting in," she says. "I'm building a lane for artists who exist between cultures, between genres—between expectations."
