orchestrating purchasing across an entire municipal ecosystem while ensuring every transaction follows contract terms. Their success shows how technology can bring order to even the most complex procurement environments without sacrificing compliance.”

A key achievement is the reduction in supplier onboarding time from 120 days to just 17 days, allowing faster order fulfillment after contract approval. Key features include:

- Centralized management of over 1,000 supplier catalogs
- Support for diverse municipal departments
- Strict contract compliance enforcement
- Accelerated supplier onboarding
- Improved supplier content management
- Reduced catalog maintenance through supplier-managed content

The San Antonio implementation highlights how Vrooz's procurement approach meets the needs of large municipal organizations while maintaining public procurement compliance standards.
