Firm Cites Increase in Global Interest for E2, L1, and EB-5 Visa Programs Amid Shifting Economic and Immigration Landscapes

As global investors and multinational companies seek secure pathways to U.S. expansion and residency, Global Immigration Partners PLLC is seeing a marked increase in demand for strategic immigration services, particularly for the E2 Treaty Investor Visa, L1 Intracompany Transfer Visa, and EB-5 Immigrant Investor Program. The firm has responded with expanded services and global outreach, reinforcing its position as a go-to legal resource for business and investor immigration.

With over two decades of combined legal experience, Global Immigration Partners has guided clients from more than 50 countries, navigating the complexities of the U.S. immigration system with customised, results-driven legal strategies.
