

TaxZerone Reminds Nonprofits to File 990 Forms by May 15 to Stay Compliant

With just 10 days remaining, nonprofits are reminded to submit their Form 990 returns for Tax Year 2024 to remain in good standing with the IRS.

SAN JOSE, CA, UNITED STATES, May 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nonprofit organizations operating on a calendar-year tax period are reminded that the deadline to file their 990 series tax forms for the 2024 tax year is rapidly approaching. The due date to file Form 990, 990-EZ, 990-N, 990-PF, or 990-T is May 15, 2025.

Filing the appropriate 990 form is a critical compliance requirement for tax-exempt organizations. Failure to file timely may result in penalties or jeopardize an organization's tax-exempt status.

Organizations can file their returns online through IRS-authorized e-file providers. TaxZerone, an IRS-approved e-filing solution, enables exempt organizations to file quickly and accurately using a streamlined platform. The process is designed to be intuitive and accessible:

- 1□□ Sign in to your TaxZerone account.
- 2□□ Click the Start button at the top of the page.
- 3□□ Select the applicable 990 form and follow the step-by-step guidance to complete your return.

Returning users can utilize the Click2File feature to save time:

- Log in to the Exempt Org. Forms Dashboard.
- Locate last year's return.
- Click Click2File to auto-populate a new return for the 2024 tax year.

TaxZerone supports all required nonprofit tax forms and schedules, including:

- Form 990-N, 990-EZ, 990, 990-PF, and 990-T
