

JUNK.COM URGES HOMEOWNERS TO DECLUTTER BEFORE MOVING FOR A SMOOTHER TRANSITION

National Moving Month Reminder: Lighten the Load - and the Stress - with Pre-Move Junk Removal

DALLAS, TX, UNITED STATES, May 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- May marks National Moving Month, when millions of Americans start packing up for new adventures — and, often, find themselves overwhelmed by years of accumulated clutter. Junk.com is encouraging homeowners and renters alike to declutter before they move to save time, money, and stress.

“Packing up your life is overwhelming enough without hauling unwanted junk along for the ride,” said Nicole Turturici, CEO at Junk.com. “We help people lighten their load, cut down moving costs, and start fresh — without the clutter.”

Junk.com recommends scheduling a junk removal pickup before the moving trucks arrive to:

- Save money: Professional movers often charge by weight — hauling unnecessary junk drives up costs.
- Save time: Fewer boxes mean faster packing and unpacking.
- Save sanity: Moving into a clean, clutter-free space leads to a smoother, more peaceful transition.

Whether it’s old furniture, outdated electronics, broken appliances, or forgotten boxes in the attic, Junk.com offers fast, reliable, eco-friendly removal, donating and recycling whenever possible.

Making moves? We’ve got your back. This National Moving Month, Junk.com is here to help you declutter, downsize, and ditch the junk before the big move.
