investment from Genesis Park, through its investment fund, GP Capital Partners, LP, and Cyprium, through its investment fund, Cyprium SBIC I LP. The investment will support the Company’s continued growth through strategic acquisitions and expansion into new markets.

Founded by a team of experienced behavioral health operators, T&R Recovery is a provider of comprehensive mental health and addiction treatment services, serving patients through its three accredited facilities in Arizona and Texas. The Company offers a full continuum of care through residential treatment, partial hospitalization, intensive outpatient, detox programs, and other ancillary services addressing a diverse set of patient needs. For more information, visit www.trrecoverygroup.com

The Company is led by Thomas Isbell, CEO and co-founder, and Roy M. Serpa, Chairman and Co-Founder. “Partnering with Genesis Park and Cyprium marks an exciting new chapter for T&R Recovery. We are thrilled to collaborate with a team that shares our vision and drive, and we are confident that together we can continue the growth momentum and strengthen the Company’s position as a leader in recovery treatment,” said Thomas Isbell. Roy M. Serpa commented, “This capital investment will bolster T&R Recovery’s ability to offer life-changing addiction and mental health treatment.”

“We are excited to partner with T&R Recovery and support its future growth and acquisition initiatives,” said Simon Haidamous, Managing Director at Genesis Park. “The T&R Recovery team provides exceptional and innovative treatments and has built an effective care model that has helped thousands of patients. We are proud to help them expand their business and change more lives.” Beth Haas, Partner at Cyprium, added “The T&R Recovery team has significant experience in the behavioral health industry and a strong track record of successfully implementing value creation plans for acquisitions. Our investment supports the Company’s strategic growth initiatives and, by extension, represents an opportunity to assist the team in its mission of helping others find hope and healing.”
