choice for homeowners throughout Pacific Grove, Monterey, and surrounding areas. The company specializes in residential exterior painting, but also offers custom paint finishes that blend timeless style with durable performance—perfectly suited for the coastal climate of the Central Coast.

“Our mission has always been to bring out the best in every home we touch,” says Ernesto Castellanos, owner of Legacy Painting and Renovating. “Pacific Grove is full of beautiful architecture, and we take pride in helping homeowners preserve and enhance that charm with our expert exterior work.”

A Fresh Coat, A Fresh Start for Pacific Grove Homes

Legacy Painting and Renovating is more than just a painting company—it's a trusted local partner committed to revitalizing homes with precision and care. Whether it's restoring a historic cottage or modernizing a seaside bungalow, the company approaches each project with craftsmanship, premium materials, and a customer-first mindset.

Services that make a difference:

- Exterior Painting: From prep to finish, Legacy's team ensures seamless and weather-resistant results.
- Custom Paint Finishes: Homeowners can choose from a variety of textures, tones, and high-end finishes tailored to personal style and architectural detail.
- Surface Preparation & Repair: Proper surface cleaning, sanding, and minor repairs are included for long-lasting results.

Why Pacific Grove Homeowners Trust Legacy Painting

Pacific Grove's coastal environment demands expertise in painting systems that withstand salt air, moisture, and sun exposure. Legacy Painting and Renovating meets that challenge head-on with its meticulous prep work and premium-grade paints designed for coastal durability.

This trusted team also aligns with today's emphasis on sustainability and safety by using low-VOC paints and eco-conscious practices. Homeowners benefit not just from enhanced aesthetics but also from healthier, longer-lasting home environments.

According to local trends, the Central Coast has seen a 15% increase in residential renovation projects over the past year, with exterior improvements topping the list. As demand grows, Legacy Painting and Renovating continues to deliver consistent results rooted in professionalism and community connection.

About the Owner

Ernesto Castellanos leads the company with a hands-on approach and a deep understanding of what homeowners value most—honesty, reliability, and flawless execution. His background in both painting and general contracting provides clients with peace of mind, knowing every phase of their project is handled with care and precision.

Whether you're planning a full home makeover or simply need a refreshed exterior, Legacy Painting and Renovating is ready to help Pacific Grove residents achieve their vision.
