numbers continuing to rise in 2025.

“Nevada’s growing number of traffic fatalities is more than a statistic, it’s a call to action,” said Patrick Mileham, DriveSafe Online director of editorial development. “Defensive driving education is one of the most effective tools we have to prevent crashes and save lives. Our mission is to give drivers the tools they need to make safer decisions behind the wheel.”

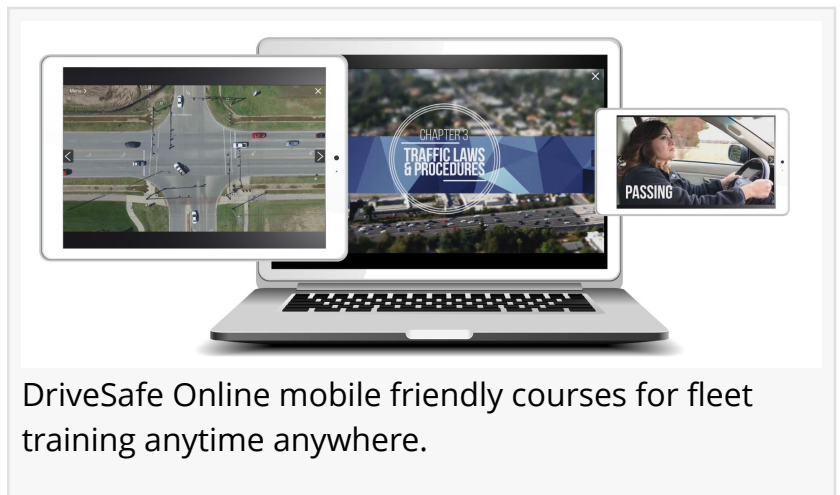

The defensive driving course of choice for safe drivers.

This launch comes as Nevada traffic fatalities continue to surge. According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), Nevada experienced a 46% increase in traffic deaths over 10 years ending in 2023. The transportation research nonprofit TRIP estimates that in 2023 alone, fatal and serious crashes in Nevada led to $16 billion in societal harm, including $4 billion in economic costs and $12 billion in quality-of-life impacts. And the Nevada Office of Traffic Safety reports that more than 400 people lost their lives on Nevada roadways in 2024, with
