Jana Gables, a Houston native and healthcare industry professional with over 13 years of hospice experience, felt a deep calling to establish a hospice organization that prioritizes both patients and caregivers. After witnessing troubling industry trends—such as high caregiver turnover and profit-driven decision-making—she was determined to create a faith-based hospice agency grounded in ethical leadership and Christian mission-focused care.

"Hospice care is deeply personal and sacred work. At Next Level, we are committed to Christ's calling in honoring every patient's journey with dignity, ensuring families receive the support they need, and treating our caregivers as the valuable professionals they are," said Jana Gables, Owner and Administrator of Next Level Hospice Care. "This is more than a business—it's a mission—a calling, if you will—and we are humbled to serve our community with faith, compassion, and purpose."

Beyond its commitment to exceptional hospice care, Next Level Hospice Care actively gives back to the Houston community. A minimum of 5% of net income is dedicated to charitable organizations, including Eyes on Me, a Christian mentoring program for underserved youth, and Elijah Rising, a nonprofit dedicated to fighting human trafficking. The hospice welcomes additional charitable partnership inquiries via its website: nextlevelhospice.com.
