The Top 5 Trends in Outdoor Lighting for 2025

1. Permanent LED Installations

Homeowners are embracing low-maintenance, long-lasting lighting that can shift color and intensity with seasons and holidays.

2. Smart Home Integration

Lighting systems that connect to voice assistants and apps are becoming standard, allowing for easy customization and scheduling.

3. Dark Sky-Compliant Fixtures

Eco-conscious homeowners are selecting designs that reduce light pollution while maintaining effective illumination.

4. Architectural Accent Lighting

Strategic uplighting and downlighting highlight home features and landscape design, merging function with flair.

5. Energy-Efficient Motion Sensors
Combining security with sustainability, motion-triggered lights offer both visibility and energy conservation.
