Ken Schneider's inclusion in The Circle follows a remarkable year of achievement in 2024, defined by exceptional client service, standout revenue performance, and a commitment to excellence in luxury travel advising. His consistent ability to craft personalized, seamless, and unforgettable travel experiences has made him a standout among GTC's 1,700+ global advisors.

"Ken's dedication to his clients and passion for curating extraordinary journeys exemplify the very best of what our advisors offer," said Angie Licea, President of Global Travel Collection. "The Circle is not only about numbers, but about impact — and Ken's impact on his clients and our community is profound."

From celebrity clientele to discerning global travelers, Ken has become a trusted figure in luxury travel, known for his insider access, white-glove service, and international network of relationships that open doors most travelers never knew existed.
