The 7th Annual Tequila Mezcal Challenge took place in beautiful Broomfield, Colorado, in the shadows of the Front Range Flatiron Mountains. Professional judges evaluated products double-blind using Wine Country Network's proprietary judging system.

Judges retested Double Gold (95+) winners and carefully selected the 2025 "Best of Show" winners.

Top spirits winners included:

"Best of Show"-1st Place: Cierta Tequila Private Collection Extra Anejo

"Best of Show"-2nd Place: Leucadia Tequila 1875 Tequila Blanco

"Best of Show"-3rd Place: Cierta Tequila Private Collection Anejo

Cierto Tequila was awarded the 2025 "Brand of the Year" for its outstanding performance and consistently high quality.

Top Packaging and Design Winners include:

- Double Gold Design Winner: Olujo, Añejo
- Gold Design Winner: Tequila El Mexicano Blanco
- Gold Design Winner: COLORES Espadin

The Tequila Mezcal Challenge welcomes entries from artisanal producers (5,000 bottles or less) and commercial bottlers. The judging team comprises some of the world's most seasoned tequila and mezcal experts. They understand and respect the work that goes into the entire production process.

We were excited to receive such well-made products. However, competition is intensifying, and it is essential to continue marketing efforts even during uncertain times.”

Christopher J Davies, CEO

Packaging and design are critical components of sales and marketing in the beverage industry. The contest also conducts a packaging and design competition, juried by art directors and marketing mavens who will judge how your product design stands out in this crowded category.

All competition winners will receive a handsome physical die-cast medal, royalty-free digital medal art, actual scores (100 pts), a listing on the competition website, and promotional exposure in our globally broadcast news announcement. A follow-up feature article will be published in Wine Country International® Magazine.
