

Lustitia Aequalis Prepares for Spring 2025 Launch of Witness App to Enhance Civil Rights Protection

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, May 7, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lustitia Aequalis Inc., a nonprofit organization dedicated to protecting and promoting civil rights, announces the upcoming launch of its innovative Witness app, scheduled for release in late Spring 2025. The app aims to empower individuals during law enforcement encounters by providing real-time evidence recording capabilities alongside immediate legal assistance.

The Witness app, formerly known as Justice Connect, represents a significant advancement in civil rights technology. It allows users to simultaneously record police interactions, contact their next of kin, and access educational materials about their legal rights. The platform also includes a feature for tracking disciplinary actions related to validated officer infractions, addressing the issue of officers who resign following misconduct only to continue serving in other jurisdictions.

Lustitia Aequalis encourages individuals to pre-register for the Witness app to gain early access upon its release. Pre-registered users will be among the first to utilize these critical resources designed to foster informed interactions with law enforcement.

The organization's commitment to social justice and innovation has already garnered recognition, including the Stellar Business Award in 2025. Through its comprehensive approach to civil rights education and advocacy, Lustitia Aequalis continues to bridge the gap between communities and law enforcement agencies.
