"Our continued growth in the Los Angeles market is a key part of our strategy to provide more convenient, high-quality wash locations for our customers," said Darren Skarecky, CEO of LUV Car Wash. "We LUV the Inglewood area, a vibrant city within Los Angeles, and feel it's right in the heart of our expansion plans. We are excited to modernize this new location and make it a valuable amenity for the community."

LUV Car Wash has been transforming older car washes into state-of-the-art facilities, enhancing the customer experience and adding value to the neighborhoods they serve.

The seller, Farad Simab, who has previously sold two other locations to LUV Car Wash, commented, "Working with the LUV Car Wash team has been a seamless and positive experience. They are truly dedicated to elevating each location they acquire."

With this new acquisition, LUV Car Wash continues to solidify its footprint in the Los Angeles market, providing customers with more accessible and high-quality car wash options.
