The tour begins at the legendary Hollywood Walk of Fame, where guests will enjoy photo opportunities at TCL Chinese Theatre and the Hollywood Sign, while learning about the fascinating history of the entertainment capital. From there, the route winds into the Hollywood Hills, providing panoramic views of downtown L.A. and the surrounding skyline.

Guests are then transported to Beverly Hills, where they'll explore neighborhoods home to some of the most famous celebrities in the world. Guides share stories and insider facts as the tour makes its way past multimillion-dollar estates, lush tree-lined avenues, and notable filming locations. A stop at the world-renowned Rodeo Drive offers guests the chance to shop and explore one of the most luxurious retail districts on the globe.

Santa Monica Pier on Los Angeles Sightseeing Tour

The final leg of the tour takes travelers west to the coast, where they'll have an hour to explore the vibrant Santa Monica beach and pier. Whether it's strolling the boardwalk, enjoying ocean views, or taking a dip in the Pacific, this relaxing stop provides the perfect ending to a well-rounded Los Angeles experience.

"Our goal with this new tour is to offer guests an unforgettable, all-in-one view of Los Angeles' most celebrated locations," said Jeff Napshin, owner of Star Track Tours. "From the glitz of Hollywood to the serenity of the beach, this tour gives visitors a taste of everything that makes L.A. so special."

Star Track Tours is widely recognized for its expert guides and high-quality sightseeing experiences. With over a decade of service and a fleet of open-air tour vans, the company has become a trusted name in celebrity home tours and Hollywood excursions. Its popular tours have been featured on major media outlets including Fox, AP News, and Europe Travel Online.
