

CAROLINE DEBERRY SELECTED AS EMPOWERED WOMAN OF THE YEAR BY IAOTP

Caroline DeBerry will be honored at the International Association of Top Professionals (IAOTP) annual awards gala in Las Vegas

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, May 7, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Caroline DeBerry, founder and CEO of Tenagrity Solutions, was recently selected as Empowered Woman of the Year for 2025 by the International Association of Top Professionals (IAOTP) for her outstanding leadership, dedication, and commitment to the industry.

Inclusion with the International Association of Top Professionals (IAOTP) is an honor; only a few women are chosen for this distinction based on their years of experience, professional accomplishments, academic achievements, leadership abilities, and contributions to their communities. These women empower others with innovation and compassion to reach their goals while creating change for future generations. Caroline DeBerry will be honored for this distinction at IAOTP's 2025 Annual Awards Gala.

The President of IAOTP, Stephanie Ciriemi, stated, "We are honored to have Caroline DeBerry as part of the IAOTP family. She provides visionary leadership as a female entrepreneur, and her extraordinary accomplishments prove she will empower women worldwide. We look forward to celebrating all her merits at the Annual Awards Gala and cannot wait to see more amazing things from this woman."

With over two decades of industry experience, Ms. DeBerry is a published author and the founder and CEO of Tenagrity Solutions, a firm specializing in strategy, communications, and operations/scalability consulting. As CEO, she partners with nonprofit and for-profit clients across the healthcare, defense, and academic sectors.

Ms. DeBerry brings a wealth of experience in government and public service. She has served as a senior congressional staffer, a senior federal analyst, a small business owner, and an executive leader in the nonprofit space. Her previous leadership roles include serving as Vice President of the Paragon Health Institute, an organization focused on developing practical, evidence-based health policy solutions. She was also the Chief External Affairs Officer for an international nonprofit, where she engaged regularly with Congress, the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Health, the Office of the Surgeon General, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), and various state governments, particularly during the nationwide COVID-19 vaccine response.

Earlier in her career, Ms. DeBerry was a Senior Legislative Assistant to a U.S. Congressman and held a PhD-level role as a senior federal analyst within the Executive Branch. She has successfully authored and advocated for multiple pieces of legislation at both the federal and state levels. In addition to her policy work, she is a seasoned communications professional—an editor, ghostwriter, and speaker featured on radio programs and webinars. Her expertise in external affairs has involved direct collaboration with Cabinet Secretaries, Members of Congress, the White House, senior military leadership, and top industry executives.

Ms. DeBerry is the author of The Renewal of Independence: The Nation's Renewed Dependence on Independence. She also wrote, illustrated, and self-published the children's book The Reflect: The Beginning.

Ms. DeBerry's areas of expertise include but are not limited to business strategy and development, program development, health policy, project management, speech writing, government and legislative relations, and politics.

Before embarking on her professional career, Ms. DeBerry earned a Bachelor's degree in U.S. Government from Freed-Hardeman University and began her Juris Doctor (JD) studies at Faulkner University's Thomas Goode Jones School of Law.

Throughout her illustrious career, Ms. DeBerry has received many awards and accolades and has been recognized worldwide for her accomplishments. Last year, she was awarded Top Founder and CEO of the Year by IAOTP and was honored at the Opryland Hotel in Nashville. This year, she is a selected featured speaker at IAOTP's Summer Soiree and will be featured on the famous Nasdaq Billboard in Times Square. This year, she will be considered to be featured in TIP (Top Industry Professionals) Magazine. This year, she will be honored at IAOTP's annual awards gala at the magnificent Bellagio Hotel in Las Vegas in December for her earlier honor of being featured in IAOTP's Top 50 Fearless Leaders Publication and for her latest selection as Empowered Woman of the Year. She was selected by Marquis Who's Who in the field of Government and Public Policy, featured in their 2024 Distinguished Leaders feature in the Wall Street Journal.

In addition to her successful professional career, Ms. DeBerry has dedicated herself to public service and civic engagement. She volunteered as a temporary registrar in the City of Alexandria. She was trained by the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association to serve as a volunteer at George Washington's Mount Vernon estate and has also served as a hostess at the Georgia Governor's Mansion. Between 2004 and 2008, Ms. DeBerry volunteered at several presidential events, served as a legislative aide to a state representative, and volunteered on numerous federal and state political campaigns.

Looking back, Ms. DeBerry attributes her success to God and her faith, her perseverance, work ethic, family, and the amazing mentors she has had along the way. When not working, she enjoys writing, drawing, painting, and spending time with her friends and family. In the future, she hopes to inspire and influence those getting into the field.
