About The Author

Patricia Gibson is a first-time novelist whose unique perspective is shaped by a childhood spent laughing at the quirky sayings and idioms around her. While she once found them amusing, today, they are an integral part of her everyday conversations, adding a touch of humor and wisdom to her life.

This debut novel marks her first professional writing project, a venture that combines her wit, charm, and a keen eye for storytelling. By day, she works for the government, but her passion for writing has led her to explore new creative horizons.

When she’s not working or writing, Patricia Gibson enjoys entering contests, reading and watching movies. She currently resides in Flossmoor, IL with her son Aidan where she continues to weave together the lessons and humor of life into her stories.
