

K&K Roofing Launches New Customer-Focused Website to Enhance Service Experience

PERRY, OH, UNITED STATES, May 8, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- K&K Roofing, a trusted provider of residential and commercial roofing solutions, today announced the launch of its newly redesigned website, offering an improved digital experience for homeowners and businesses seeking quality roofing services.

The new mobile-responsive website features an intuitive design, simplified navigation, and valuable resources to help property owners make informed decisions about their roofing needs. Visitors can now easily request quotes, schedule inspections, and access educational content about roofing materials, maintenance tips, and warning signs of roof damage.

The website not only improves accessibility for our existing customers but also allows us to connect with new clients who can benefit from our services.”

Ken Tharp

Key features of the new website include:

- A comprehensive gallery showcasing completed projects
- Detailed information about available roofing materials and services
- Seamless quote request functionality with rapid response guarantee

This digital upgrade comes as more homeowners and businesses are researching and initiating roofing projects online. According to industry data, over 70% of property owners now begin their search for roofing contractors through digital channels.

"We recognized the growing need for an online presence that truly represents our values and capabilities," added Ken Tharp. "The website not only improves accessibility for our existing customers but also allows us to connect with new clients who can benefit from our services."

K&K Roofing has served the Northeast Ohio community since 1996, building a reputation for exceptional workmanship, reliability, and customer service. The company specializes in roof installation, repair, maintenance, and inspections for both residential and commercial properties.
