

Louisiana-Based Startup Launches Touchless, At-Home Car Wash Service Amid Growing Industry Demand

The Future of Car Care Doesn't Wait in Line—It Comes to You

HAMMOND, LA, UNITED STATES, May 8, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A new entrant in the car care industry is offering a streamlined, tech-forward alternative to traditional car washes. SayNoMore Super Mobile Car Wash, founded by Louisiana entrepreneur Tyjae, delivers ceramic-enhanced, touchless car washing directly to customers' homes—typically completing services in under two hours.

SayNoMore operates without added travel, labor, or fuel fees. The service is fast becoming Louisiana's go-to mobile car wash and ceramic detailing solution for drivers seeking convenience, surface-safe methods, and a high-end result—without the hassle of lines or physical wash locations.

"We developed SayNoMore as a system designed for efficiency and safety," said Tyjae. "We focus on protecting vehicle surfaces while minimizing time and hassle for customers."

appointment-based, touchless model tailored to the expectations of modern vehicle owners.

Designed for scalability and high repeat use, the company is preparing to expand into additional metro areas and is in discussions with investors and strategic partners. With low overhead, high delivery efficiency, and a direct-to-consumer model, SayNoMore aligns with larger trends in on-demand vehicle care and mobile service economies.

Flexible Packages for Today's Vehicle Owners

SayNoMore offers four curated service tiers, designed for convenience, condition, and lifestyle:

- Drive-Thru Wash Killer – For customers seeking a fast, high-quality touchless wash at home—no more waiting in lines.
- Clean & Fresh Reset – A convenient at-home refresh for both the interior and exterior.
- Fresh Lot Finish – Ideal for used car owners or those preserving vehicle value with light detailing.
- Showroom Killer – The ultimate home-based detail for luxury, enthusiast, or high-value vehicles.

All services are available for all vehicles, though well-maintained vehicles ensure faster service and consistent results.
